

CLAIM OR CLAIMS

0006 1. We claim that the invention is the concept of automatically deducting money from one's paycheck and transferring these funds as a donation to the employee's organization of choice (direct deposit).

0007 2. We claim that the invention is the creation of a middleman service that is responsible for promoting, receiving, tracking, and ultimately donating the directly deposited funds to the various non-profit organizations.